Office Policies

Our purpose is restoring the natural expression of health you were designed to have….getting you back to what you love doing in life through natural Chiropractic care!

We maintain a scientific and predictable approach to the correction of subluxation. In order to determine the appropriate level of Chiropractic care and whether we can accept your case, we ask that you agree to our initial process of evaluation and necessary recommendation.

Payment:

Payment is due at the time services are rendered. All first day procedures are to be paid for in full. We accept Visa, Master Card, personal check, and cash.

Insurance and Personal Injury:

We will gladly contact your insurance carrier or claims adjuster to verify coverage for Chiropractic care. We gain the best information possible from your carrier; however your policy is a contract with them and not our office. Therefore, there is no guarantee of benefits for services rendered. We always recommend that you contact your own carrier for your own contractual understanding. As the patient in our office, you are always responsible for charges and outstanding balances.

Worker's compensation:

The state compensation insurance fund provides for payment of chiropractic services for treatment of accidental injuries that occur during the course of employment. It is necessary for you to have verification from your employer before you receive any treatment in this office. You will be provided with an "Authorization for Treatment" form. Please be aware that in the case that the form cannot be completed before treatment, a verbal authorization from a supervisor is required for this office to proceed with any treatment.

We appreciate this opportunity to serve the health needs of you and your family.
